U. S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On the 22nd day of May, 1984, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon a verdict of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §1202 App., as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Five (5) years.

Thereafter, and on August 16, 1985, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, a warrant of arrest of said probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on August 21, 1985, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Kenneth R. Klutts, appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma. And on August 30, 1985, the Magistrate directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses against him, a preliminary hearing was conducted and concluded before the Magistrate. On August 30, 1985, said defendant was bound over to the District Court for revocation hearing.

Thereafter, and on September 17, 1985, the case was called for revocation hearing before the District Court. The parties stipulated that the transcript of the preliminary hearing before the Magistrate should be considered by the District Court as all the evidence to be presented in the case; therefore, no additional evidentiary hearing was conducted. The defendant and counsel admitted that defendant was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged and the Court found that the defendant had violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on May 22, 1984, be revoked and set aside.

NOW, on this 20th day of September, 1985, IT IS ORDERED that the defendant, Kenneth R. Klutts, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Two (2) Years. The Court recommends that the defendant be incarcerated in an institution where he will receive job training.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order of Revocation to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.
