ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the motion for new trial of defendant, Zachary R. Montgomery. Montgomery was convicted on November 30, 1984, of violation of 21 U.S.C. §846, conspiracy to manufacture, possess and distribute drugs.

Defendant filed a motion for new trial and motion for judgment of acquittal on December 7, 1984, pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 33 and F.R.Cr.P. 29. On January 24, 1985, before the government had responded to the motions and before the Court had ruled on the motions, Zachary Montgomery was sentenced for the violation. On February 1, 1985, defendant filed notice of appeal of his conviction. On February 6, 1985, the government filed a belated response to the defendants motions for new trial and acquittal.

The existence of the defendant's motions first came to the Court's attention in May 1985. The Court has reviewed a transcript of the sentencing of defendant, and found no reference whatsoever to the motions. Before imposing sentence, the Court addressed counsel for defendant as follows:

COURT: Do you know of any lawful reason, Mr. McCollam, why sentence should not be pronounced at this time?

COUNSEL: No, your Honor. I do not.

Furthermore, the judgment of conviction having been appealed before the Court ruled on the motions, the Court concludes it has no jurisdiction to rule on the motions for new trial and judgment of acquittal at this time.
