GUILTY.

Defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of having violated Title 42, U.S.C., Section 408(a), as charged in Count one of the Indictment.

SENTENCE OR PROBATION ORDER

The court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

COUNTY 1 - The imposition of sentence is suspended and the defendant is hereby placed on probation for a period of ONE (1) YEAR from this date.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant make restitution in the amount of $3,474.30, in payments as determined by the Probation office.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

In addition to the special conditions of probation imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the general conditions of probation set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of probation, reduce or extend the period of probation, and at any time during the probation period or within a maximum probation period of five years permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke probation for a violation occurring during the probation period.

COMMITMENT RECOMMENDATION

The court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends,

It is ordered that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this judgment and commitment to the U.S. Marshal or other qualified officer.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

No. 80-CR-78-04

WRITTEN FINDINGS REGARDING DEFENDANT'S
FINAL PROBATION REVOCATION HEARING

On January 3, 1986, this court conducted a final hearing in this matter to determine whether the probationary sentence heretofore imposed by this court in this case against the defendant should be revoked. The defendant appeared in person and with his attorney, John Echols, and the government appeared through Jack Morgan, Assistant United States Attorney.

The court advised the defendant of his right to counsel, to call witnesses in his own behalf, to testify himself, and to cross examine the witnesses called by the government. The court asked the defendant if he had had an opportunity to review the Probation Officer's report containing the alleged grounds for revocation of his probation and an additional report prepared by the Probation Department. The defendant stated that he had read the reports and that he knew of no corrections which should be made in the reports.

Corporal Harold Adair, a narcotics officer with the Tulsa Special Investigation Division, testified that the probationer was found on June 6, 1985, at the Stratford Tower Motel, 3355 E. Skelly Drive, Tulsa, Oklahoma, in possession of marijuana, cocaine, and drug paraphernalia.

Rodney Baker, a United States Probation Officer, Northern District of Oklahoma, testified probationer was admitted to Valley Hope Rehabilitation Center on May 15, 1985, after a series of urine tests for drugs were positive. Baker further testified that probationer had, on June 6, 1985, violated the Oklahoma criminal laws and therefore had violated the rules of his probation as testified to by Corporal Adair.

The government then rested.

The defendant offered the testimony of Dr. Jim O'Carrol and the defendant's mother, June Whitaker.

The defendant then rested.

The court, being a neutral and detached hearing body, finds and concludes from the evidence that the defendant, John Hudson Whitaker, has violated the terms and conditions of the probationary sentence imposed upon him in count two in this case as set forth in the petition for revocation filed herein while the probationary sentence was in full force and effect, as follows:

1. The defendant violated the criminal laws of the State of Oklahoma by possessing marijuana, cocaine, and drug paraphernalia on June 6, 1985, at Tulsa, Northern District of Oklahoma.

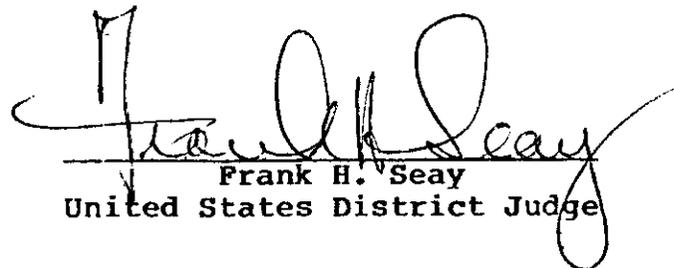

The court finds pursuant to Rule 32(c)(1), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, that there is in the record information sufficient to enable the meaningful exercise of sentencing discretion in that the court had before it the presentence report prepared on the defendant which was utilized on July 10, 1981, in sentencing said defendant and in placing said defendant on probation. In addition, the court has reviewed the report of preliminary hearing on petition to revoke probationary sentence filed herein by the United States Magistrate for this court, said hearing having been conducted on November 7, 1985, and further has conducted this second or final hearing on said petition and has received and heard the evidence with respect to said second hearing.

The court, after orally making the aforesaid findings, then afforded the defendant and his attorney the right of allocution, and the defendant and his attorney made comments. The Assistant United States Attorney made no comment when given the opportunity to speak in aggravation of punishment. The court found imprisonment appropriate on the basis of the original sentence and the probationer's intervening conduct and for the further reasons that confinement is necessary to protect the public from further criminal activity by the defendant and it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if probation were not revoked.

Thereupon, the court sentenced the defendant to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of seven (7) years to be served in an institution where he may receive treatment for his drug abuse and, if needed, his psychiatric needs.

IT IS ALL SO ORDERED this 3rd day of January, 1986.
