ORDER OF REVOCATION

On November 18, 1982, defendant Lee Andrew Barnes appeared in person and with counsel before the United States Magistrate.

It was adjudged that defendant, upon a plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 42 U.S.C. §408(d) as charged in the Amended Information.

It was further adjudged that the imposition of sentence be suspended and defendant was placed on probation for a period of three (3) years. Defendant was additionally fined $300.00 and was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $1,252.80.

Thereafter, the court extended defendant's probation period for two (2) years because defendant had not paid his fine or made restitution.

On June 16, 1986, the supervising probation officer submitted an application that the court issue a warrant for defendant's arrest and that defendant's parole be revoked.

The probationer, represented by counsel, appeared before the United States Magistrate on June 20, 1986, at which time the parties stipulated as to the testimony of the probation officer, Robert E. Boston. Mr. Boston's testimony was that because of alcohol and drug use Mr. Barnes was not amenable to community supervision and that he was continually violating the law and conditions of his probation. Having admitted that defendant was in violation of his conditions of parole, defense counsel requested that the court recommend defendant be incarcerated at the Federal Corrections Facility at Fort Worth, Texas.

It is therefore ordered that the Order of Probation entered on November 8, 1985, be revoked and set aside.

It is further ordered that the defendant, Lee Andrew Barnes, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of one (1) year. The Magistrate recommends that the defendant be incarcerated at the Federal Correctional Institution at Fort Worth, Texas, so that he may be afforded treatment for drug abuse.
