No. 85-CR-140-C

JACK C. SILVER, CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER REVOKING PROBATION

Now, on this 16th day of October, 1986, this cause comes on for hearing before the undersigned Judge of the District Court upon the Petition for Probation Action filed herein on October 10, 1986, by the U.S. Probation Officer for this Court. The defendant is present in person and by counsel, Susan Otto, and the United States is present by Ben F. Baker, Assistant United States Attorney.

Heretofore, on December 2, 1985, defendant was convicted on his plea of guilty to a violation of 18 U.S.C. 1708, possession of a U.S. Treasury check stolen from the mail, and was thereafter, on January 16, 1986, sentenced to a probationary term of five years.

The U.S. Probation Office for this Court seeks revocation of this probation on the grounds contained in its Petition, that is, that defendant's monitored urinalysis showed usage of the controlled drug Phencyclidine on three separate occasions, in July, August and September, 1986.

A preliminary hearing on the Petition was conducted by the U.S. Magistrate for this district on October 14, 1986, following which defendant was ordered detained for this District Court hearing this date.

Counsel for the defendant and the defendant admit that defendant used Phencyclidine on two of the three occasions alleged in the Petition, but dispute the third use alleged.

A statement in support of the application to revoke probation is presented to the Court by U.S. Probation Officer Robert Boston.

The United States rests. Defendant calls Probation Officers Melvin Fields and Boston, and rests.

The Court, having read the pleadings on file herein, and having heard the sworn testimony of witnesses and the argument of counsel, finds that the defendant's probationary sentence should be, and the same is herewith revoked.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the order of probation of defendant is vacated and set aside, and the defendant is sentenced to the custody of the Attorney General for a term of 18 months.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk deliver a certified copy of this order to the U.S. Marshal for this district to serve as the commitment of the defendant.

Dated at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 16th day of October, 1986.
