No. 87-CR-1-C

O R D E R

The Court has before it for consideration the motion of the defendant, Johnny Leroy Canfield, for a reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with violations of Title 8 U.S.C. Sections 1005 and 2, and he now asks the Court to modify the sentence imposed by it upon him on June 15, 1987.

In considering defendant's motion for reduction of sentence, the Court has carefully reviewed the entire record and finds that the sentence imposed was appropriate, just, and reasonable under the circumstances of this case. Therefore, the motion for reduction of sentence is hereby OVERRULED.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 23rd day of December, 1987.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant John Root's motion to reduce sentence pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 35. For the reasons set forth below, the motion is denied.

Defendant was convicted following a jury trial of having violated 18 U.S.C. §922(d). On July 7, 1987, the Court sentenced the Defendant to three years' probation and a $1,000.00 fine. Defendant's Rule 35 motion was filed on October 27, 1987, and is therefore timely pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 35.

In applicable part, Rule 35(b) provides:

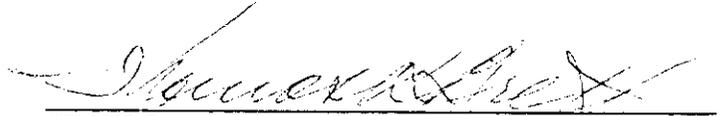

"...the Court may reduce a sentence ... within 120 days after the sentence is imposed, ... or within 120 days after receipt by the court of a mandate issued upon affirmance of the judgment or dismissal of the appeal, or within 120 days after entry of any order or judgment of the Supreme Court denying review thereof, or having the effect of upholding a judgment of conviction ..."

The Court has reviewed in some detail the sentence given Defendant Root in this case and the reasons therefor. In addition, the Court has reviewed the Defendant's motion and brief in support of reduction or modification of sentence and concludes that the Court's original sentence was appropriate under the circumstances and should not be reduced.

Defendant John Root's motion for reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35 is hereby denied.

DATED this 15th day of December, 1987.

Jack C. Silver, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On the 15th day of July, 1986, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel.

It was adjudged that the defendant, upon a finding of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §4, as charged in the Information.

It was further adjudged that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for Three (3) Years, under the condition that the defendant be placed in a jail type facility for a period of Three (3) months; the remainder of which was suspended and the defendant placed on probation for Four (4) years. The defendant was further ordered to make restitution in the amount of $1,454.00.

Thereafter, and on November 17, 1987, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, a summons was issued.

Thereafter, and on December 14, 1987, pursuant to said summons, the probationer appeared before this Court. The Court directed the Probation Officer to recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in her own behalf and to question witnesses against her, the defendant and counsel admitted that she was in violation of the terms of her probation and waived an evidentiary hearing. The Court found that the defendant had violated the terms of probation and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Probation heretofore imposed on July 15, 1986, be revoked and the Sentence vacated.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Anna Kaye Carter, be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Fifteen (15) Months.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall make restitution in the amount of $1,454.00.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order of Revocation to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified office and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 14th day of December, 1987.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On the 27th day of February, 1987, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel.

It was adjudged that the defendant, upon a finding of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §1708, as charged in the Indictment.

It was further adjudged that as to Count 2, the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Five (5) Years, and was further ordered to make restitution in the amount of $621.69.

Thereafter, and on September 14, 1987, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, a warrant of arrest of said probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on September 15, 1987, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer appeared before the U. S. Magistrate for the Northern District of Oklahoma. And on September 16, 21, 28 and 30, 1987, the probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and having been given an opportunity to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses against him, a preliminary hearing was conducted and concluded before the Magistrate. On September 30, 1987, said probationer was bound over to the District Court for revocation hearing.

Thereafter, and on November 10, 1987, the case was called for revocation hearing before the District Court. The Court directed that the Probation Officer recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation, and after statements made by counsel, an evidentiary hearing was held. After testimony by witnesses and introduction of exhibits, the Court found that the defendant was in violation of the conditions of probation as alleged and that probation should be revoked.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on February 27, 1987, be revoked and set aside.

Now, on this 10th day of December, 1987, IT IS ORDERED that the defendant, Darnell Barnett, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Fourteen (14) Months. The Court orders commitment to the custody of the Attorney General and recommends that the defendant be placed in an institution where he will receive drug rehabilitation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order of Revocation to the U. S. Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 10th day of December, 1987.
