Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	16
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	21 to 27 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$7,500 to $1,000,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $101,620.92.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the Court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by the application of the guidelines.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$15,000 to $4,000,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the Court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by the application of the guidelines.

The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Count 1 of the Superseding Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	29
Criminal History Category:	VI
Imprisonment Range:	151 to 188 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 to years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$15,000 to $2,000,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason:

A sentence in the middle of the guideline range is imposed based on the defendant's extensive criminal history and his pattern of returning to the United States illegally following deportation.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	13
Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	12 to 18 months	Count 6
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 6
Fine Range:	$3,000 to $30,000	Count 6

Total amount of Restitution: $. Unknown

Restitution is applicable in this case, however, full amount has not been determined and the co-defendant in this case has agreed to a Consent Order to pay the victims the full amount of the remediation costs associated with the cleanup of the contaminated sites in this offense.

The sentence departs from the guideline range for the following specific reasons:

The Court granted a downward departure based on three factors. First, the defendant's participation was in large part the result of negligent conduct. There is no evidence he was knowledgeable of the applicable regulations pertaining to the disposal of the hazardous wastes involved in this offense or that it was reasonable that he should have known of the applicable regulations. He had no significant financial interest in the unlawful disposal of the hazardous wastes and his actions were motivated in large part by his desire to simply burn a brush pile on his property. In fact, this offense created substantial harm to the defendant by the damage that was done to his property. Considering his lack of knowledge about the substances involved and his general lack of knowledge concerning the applicable regulations for the handling of the hazardous wastes, his conduct could be categorized as negligent. A one-level departure under provisions of USSG §2Q1.2, comment. (n.4) is appropriate.

A further two-level downward departure is appropriate under the provisions of USSG §2Q1.2, comment. (n.5). There are obviously varying degrees of contamination that could occur from an unlawful discharge of hazardous wastes. Application Note 5 considers the wide ranges and types of discharges covered by the general provisions of USSG §2Q1.2. The guideline does not specifically address the degree of contamination but suggests the sentencing court consider a departure, upward or downward, to address greater or lesser degrees of the environmental contamination. Not to diminish the seriousness of the offense, it must be compared to other types of possible and conceivable discharges of hazardous wastes. This offense is not of the nature involving a discharge of nuclear material in an urban area or a large scale contamination of food products or a public water supply. On a broad scale covering similar types of offenses, but considering all degrees of contamination, from the least to the most, this offense is on the lower end of the scale.

Another two-level downward departure is warranted under the provisions of Application Note 8. Although this offense involved a violation of a permit, Greene's failure to obtain an EPA or ODEQ permit to discharge the spent solvent and waste paint, the nature and quantity of the substance involved and the risk associated with the offense are less than many conceivable similar types of offenses. In addition, this offense was a single event and not a lengthy series of unpermitted discharges.

With a departure of five levels, Greene's offense level is 8. Combined with his Criminal History Category I, the applicable range of 0 to 6 months places him in Zone A of the Sentencing Table. This makes him eligible for probation.
