FILED

SEP 29 1999

Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

THE DEFENDANT:

Pleaded guilty to Count 1 of the Superseding Indictment on June 15, 1999.

Accordingly, the defendant is adjudged guilty of such count, involving the following offense:

Title and Section	Nature of Offense	Date Offense Concluded	Count
18 USC 1344	Bank Fraud	9/16/98	1

As pronounced on September 17, 1999, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 5 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

Counts 2 through 9 of the Superseding Indictment are dismissed on the motion of the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid.

Signed this the 29TH day of SEPTEMBER, 1999.

The Honorable Sven Erik Holmes
U.S. District Court Judge

Defendant's Soc. Sec. No.: 586-09-9563
Defendant's Date of Birth: 8/24/76
Defendant's U.S.M. No.: 08342-062
Defendant's Residence and Mailing Address: c/o Federal Bureau of Prisons

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 15 months.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

RETURN

I have executed this Judgment as follows:

Defendant delivered on _____ to _____ at _____, with a certified copy of this Judgment.

United States Marshal

By: _____
Deputy Marshal

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.
16. You will not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE
$100.00	$16,700.10	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $16,700.10.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
NationsBank, Attn: Leslie Edison	5950 East Admiral Place	Tulsa OK 74115-8617	$16,700.10

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	13
Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	12 to 18 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$3,000 to $30,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $16,700.10.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant has been arrested four times since May, 1998 for similar fraudulent behavior which has resulted in four pending state cases. The instant federal offense involved a great amount of planning and forethought, and occurred after she had been charged in the similar state offenses.

15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	9
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	4 to 10 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$1,000 to $10,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Based on the lack of aggravating circumstances and the defendant's lack of prior convictions.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three years as to each of Counts 3, 4, 6 & 8 and five years as to each of Counts 5, 7, & 9, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$700.00	$1,050.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $700 for Counts 3-9 of the Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,050.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
U.S. Express, Inc.	1610 N. Lewis	Tulsa OK 74115	$500
Christina Marie Demauro	821 S. Russell	Skiatook OK 74070	$500
Mr. & Mrs. Artie Wood	4028 N. Delaware	Tulsa OK 74110	$50

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release, except that no further payment shall be required after the sum of the amount actually paid by all defendants has fully covered the compensable injury. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	29
Criminal History Category:	II
Imprisonment Range:	97 to 121 months	Counts 3, 4, 6, 8
	Not less than 84 months	Count 5
	Not less than 300 months	Count 7
	Not less than 300 months	Count 9
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Counts 3, 4, 6, 8
	3 to 5 years	Counts 5, 7, 9
Fine Range:	$15,000 to $150,000	Counts 3, 4, 6, 8
	$0 to $250,000	Counts 5, 7, 9

Total amount of Restitution: $1,050.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The Court imposed sentence at the low-end of the guideline range as to Counts 3, 4, 6 & 8 because the defendant faced a significant mandatory sentence totaling 384 months on Counts 5, 7 & 9.

Deputy Marshal

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.  (see below)
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.
16. You will not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

 Keeping in mind that drug testing is a mandatory condition of supervision, the Court recommends that the defendant be placed in an intensive substance abuse treatment program while under supervision.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$346,417.56	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $346,417.56. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Arrow Measurement, Inc., Attn: Bruce Orf	44 South 122 nd East Avenue	Tulsa OK 74128	$201,346.00
Oklahoma Farm Bureau Insurance, Claim No. 1998-028494	1901 South Garnett	Tulsa OK 74128	$130,000.00
Ad Vantage Marketing, Attn: Gary Crawford	4920 South Lewis, Suite 112	Tulsa OK 74105	$5,000.00
City of Tulsa, Attn: Human Resources (Employee Benefits Division)	707 South Houston, Suite 407	Tulsa OK 74127	$10,071.56

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The court adopts the factual findings and guideline application in the presentence report except:

The Court finds the Career Offender Provisions of USSG 4B1.1 are not applicable because the defendant's prior Minnesota conviction for Assault is not a "Crime of Violence." The statute under which the defendant was convicted appears to permit a defendant to be convicted for a violation of the statute in some circumstances without the element of "force" present in the offense. The guidelines otherwise applicable are the correct guidelines.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	19
Criminal History Category:	VI
Imprisonment Range:	63 to 78 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$6,000 to $60,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $346,417.56.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

For the following specific reasons: The Court departs upward two levels from an offense level 19 under the provisions of § 5K2.2 and Application Note 1 of USSG § 2K1.4 because this offense caused bodily injury to firefighters, a factor which is not accounted for in the guideline applicable for this offense. The Court determined a two-level upward departure was appropriate based on similar offense level increases provided for "bodily injury" in other guidelines, such as USSG § 2B3.1, Robbery and USSG § 2A2.2, Aggravated Assault. The total offense level due to the departure is 21 with a corresponding guideline range of 77 to 96 months. A sentence at this high end of the range is appropriate due to his criminal record and the seriousness of the offense.

PROBATION

The Defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of five (5) years.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$0.00	$2,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $2,000 for Count 1 of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of Probation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	10
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	6 to 12 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$2,000 to $20,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Due to the defendant's significant effort to repay restitution.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$0.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	11
Criminal History Category:	IV
Imprisonment Range:	18 to 24 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	1 to years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$2,000 to $20,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The sentence is imposed at the low end of the guideline range due to the nature of the defendant's criminal record, and his cooperation with the government in its investigation of this offense.

$100.00	$60,492.60	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 10 of the indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $60,492.60.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Social Security Administration	1301 Young Street, Suite 600	Dallas TX 75202	$60,492.60

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

Payments of $175 per month are to be withheld from the defendant's Social Security benefits and forwarded to the Social Security Administration, as previously agreed upon by the defendant. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	11
Criminal History Category:	VI
Imprisonment Range:	27 to 33 months	Count 10
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 10
Fine Range:	$2,000 to $20,000	Count 10

Total amount of Restitution: $60,492.60.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence departs from the guideline range for the following reason: The Court concluded that pursuant to USSG § 4A1.3, the defendant's criminal history category significantly over-represents the seriousness of his criminal history and the likelihood that he will commit further crimes. Due to the defendant's lengthy relevant conduct spanning over 20 years, two convictions in 1969 and two in 1972 were included, which resulted in a criminal history category of VI. The Court based a departure on the exclusion of these convictions, resulting in a criminal history category of V, with a departure range of imprisonment of 24-30 months.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of one (1) year as to each of Counts 1 through 4, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of five (5) months, to commence within 72 hours of release from imprisonment. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

FINE

$3,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $350 for Counts 1 through 4 of the Amended Information, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $3,000 for Counts 1 through 4 of the Amended Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

FORFEITURE

The defendant forfeited his interest in the property listed on Page 5 (A - M) of the Plea Agreement to the United States prior to sentencing.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	13
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	12 to 18 months	Counts 1 - 4
Supervised Release Range:	1 year	Counts 1 - 4
Fine Range:	$3,000 to $30,000	Counts 1 - 4

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

For the following specific reason: based on the defendant's extraordinary acceptance of responsibility and cooperation in the forfeiture of considerable assets.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of three (3) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the U. S. Probation Office.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$1,100.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,100.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma, Attn: Sarah Woodard, Manager	PO Box 735	Miami OK 74335	$500
Commercial Insurance, Attn: Maureen Seifert	6143 Willow Drive, Suite 330	Englewood, CO 80111	$200
Walmart (store number 28), Attn: Chuck Stotts, Manager	2414 North Main Street	Miami OK 74354	$400

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately jointly and severally with codefendant Torrey Snow. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation, except that no further payments shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully covered the compensable injury. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	6
Criminal History Category:	II
Imprisonment Range:	1 to 7 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$500 to $5,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $1,100.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The Court imposes this sentence due to the defendant's criminal record and her family responsibilities.

2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$1,100.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,100. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma, Attn: Sarah Woodard, Manager	PO Box 735	Miami OK 74335	$500

Walmart (Store 28), Attn: Chuck Stotts, Manager	2414 North Main Street	Miami OK 74354	$400

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately, jointly and severally with codefendant Leanne Moore. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation, except that no further payment shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully covered the compensable injury. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	0 to 6 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$500 to $5,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $1,100.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: due to the defendant's minor criminal history, her gainful employment and the need for restitution.

As pronounced on September 20, 1999, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 4 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid.

Signed this the 22nd day of Sept., 1999.

The Honorable H. Dale Cook
U.S. District Court Judge

Defendant's Soc. Sec. No.: 445-70-8640
Defendant's Date of Birth: 9/3/62
Defendant's USM No.: 08432-062
Defendant's Residence and Mailing Address: 714 South Haynie, Skiatook OK 74070

PROBATION

The Defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of five (5) years.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall serve the first six (6) months in community confinement, as scheduled, arranged, and approved by the U. S. Probation Office, which shall commence no later than 10 days from the sentencing date. The defendant may be allowed to maintain employment while in community confinement.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$7,697.71	$1,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $7,697.71.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
American Ambulance, Attn: Levi Thetford	6145 East 21 st Street	Tulsa OK 74114	$7,697.71

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $1,000 for Count 1 of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of Probation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	10
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	6 to 12 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$2,000 to $20,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $7,697.71.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence of probation with community confinement is imposed due to the defendant's positive demeanor.

13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$0.00	$1,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $1,000 for Count 1 of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	27
Criminal History Category:	V
Imprisonment Range:	60 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$12,500 to $125,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant entered a plea of guilty to an 18 USC § 371 conspiracy which has a statutory limit of 60 months.

Case No. 98-^{CR}~~CV~~-0179-EA

ENTERED ON DOCKET

DATE SEP 22 1999

ORDER

Previously, the government dismissed the charge against defendant without prejudice. The parties appeared this date for hearing on defendant's motion for costs pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3006A. The parties previously stipulated in open court on September 10, 1999, that costs are not sought as "prevailing party" under the Hyde Amendment for vexatious, frivolous or bad faith prosecution.

Following testimony of defendant and argument of counsel, the Court finds that defendant does not meet the standard for reimbursement of testing fees under Section 3006A(e). Defendant testified that he sold a non-operating Harley Davidson motorcycle for $5,100 in order to pay this $850 testing cost. Because defendant had an asset which he could and did use to pay the costs, the Court finds that he was financially able to obtain the services and, thus, he does not meet the "interest of justice" standard in Section 3006A(e)(2)(B).

Based on the stipulation of the parties, this case is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of three (3) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the U. S. Probation Office.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$1,100.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,100.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma, Attn: Sarah Woodard, Manager	PO Box 735	Miami OK 74335	$500

Walmart (store number 28), Attn: Chuck Stotts, Manager	2414 North Main Street	Miami OK 74354	$400

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	6
Criminal History Category:	II
Imprisonment Range:	1 to 7 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$500 to $5,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $1,100.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The Court imposes this sentence due to the defendant's criminal record and her family responsibilities.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. As a condition of supervised release, upon completion of your term of imprisonment, you are to be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official for deportation proceedings in accordance with the established procedures provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Act, 8 USC §§ 1101-1524. It is a further condition of supervised release, if ordered deported, you shall remain outside the United States until termination of the term of supervised release. Should the defendant serve any portion of supervised release within the United States, the special conditions listed are ordered.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	21
Criminal History Category:	V
Imprisonment Range:	70 to 87 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$7,500 to $75,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: The sentence was imposed in the middle of the guideline range because the aggravated conviction giving rise to the 16 point offense level increase was not violent or as serious as other aggravated felonies intended to be addressed by the guidelines.

16. You will not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

$400.00

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400 for Counts 1 through 4 of the indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	31
Criminal History Category:	III
Imprisonment Range:	135 to 168 months	Counts 1-4
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Counts 1-4
Fine Range:	$15,000 to $150,000	Counts 1-4

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: 1) the defendant's murder-for-hire scheme; 2) his conviction of similar offense; 3) his longstanding vendetta; and 4) his willingness to kill people.

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Rogers County Bank, Attn: Dusty L. Mangrum	1600 S. Lynn Riggs Blvd.	Claremore OK 74017	$10

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately, joint and several with codefendant, Rodney Eugene Ellis. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release, except that no further payment shall be required after the sum of the amount actually paid by all defendants has fully covered the compensable injury. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $2,500 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	22
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	41 to 51 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$7,500 to $75,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $10.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

For the following specific reasons:

due to the defendant's substance abuse, the aberrational nature of the offense and the defendant's criminal history.
