SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

Undetermined (See below)

FINE

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $335 to the following payee. The remainder of restitution will be determined at a later date. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Fraternal Order of Police Credit Union	6733 East 11 th Street	Tulsa OK	$335

Pursuant to 18 USC 3664(d)(5), a hearing will be held within 90 days to make a final determination of the victims and their precise losses.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Total Offense Level:	23
Criminal History Category:	VI
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$10,000 to $100,000	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by application of the guidelines.

PROBATION

The Defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of three (3) years.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
2. The Court suspends the requirements for mandatory urine screening as dictated by 18 USC § 3608, but specifically retains the probation officer's authority to administer such tests for cause as permitted by the standard conditions of supervision.
3. The defendant shall perform 120 hours of community service at Resonance Support Center for Women and shall successfully participate in Self Esteem Group and individual counseling sessions, as designated by the U.S. Probation Office.
4. The defendant shall reside for six (6) months in Madorina House, 749 North Denver, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and shall successfully complete the parenting and educational classes, as designated by the U.S. Probation Office.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

$25.00

RESTITUTION

$1,005.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,005.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Bank One, Attn: Janet Siegal, Corporate Security OHI-0612	PO Box 970161	Dallas TX 75397-0161	$1,005

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	6
Criminal History Category:	I
Supervised Release Range:	1 year	Count 1

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Because of the defendant's lack of criminal history.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. 9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $2,911.80. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Oklahoma Members First Credit Union, Attn: Susan Brandon, President		Tulsa OK 74146	$586.00
Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Attn: Jim McCallay, Loss Control Manager	6300 East 37 th Street North	Wichita KS 67220	$2,325.80

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	70 to 87 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $2,911.80.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: the robbery was characterized as extremely violent, to include bodily injury, threats of death, and physical force applied to victims.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,699.53. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Ron Duncan	2415 S. Urbana	Tulsa OK 74114	$1,500
Albertson's Grocery, Attn: Matt Loveless, Manager	7990 East 51 st Street	Tulsa OK 74145	$60.78
Food Outlet, Attn: Joyce Casto	127 W. 12th	Bristow OK 74010	$19.30

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	VI
Fine Range:	$1,000 to $10,000	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant has an extensive history of such offenses.

3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
2. Pursuant to 7 USC 2015(a)(1), the defendant is suspended from the Food Stamp Program for a maximum of 1 year.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $251.38. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Department of Human Services, Office of Inspector General, Attn: George Tipton	Box 25322	Oklahoma City OK 73125	$251.38

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	6
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	0 to 6 months	Count 1
Supervised Release:	1 year	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $251.38.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Because of the defendant's lack of criminal history.

PROBATION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention or detention at a treatment center to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$1,500.00

FINE

$2,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,500.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Delaware County Bank, Attn: Lu Anna Hastings	PO Box 448	Jay OK 74346	$1,500

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $2,000 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of Probation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	4 to 10 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$1,000 to $10,000	Count 1

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Due to the lack of the defendant's criminal history.

The Court notes that plaintiff has previously sought, in 1994, to reopen this case and that motion was denied. A thorough review of the five motions filed by plaintiff at this time reveals that the claims and arguments raised in these motions reveals that they are not related to the claims raised in this action except to the extent that they each loosely pertain to the election process. The Court finds, therefore that the motions are not properly captioned as motions for new trial or to reopen this case, but that they, in fact, raise new claims, and would be more appropriately brought as new original actions. ### SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of twenty-two (22) months, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
4. The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $1,245.29 to Radisson Inn Tulsa Airport, 2201 North 77th East Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74115, Attention: Chad Cobb, Accounting Manager, Case Number 991041003. Said restitution shall be paid during the term of supervised release, following payment in full of restitution as ordered to Red Man Pipe and Supply Company.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $2,414.72 as to Count 3 to the payees as ordered in the Judgment entered July 12, 1996.

Payments for any unpaid balances shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

Any unpaid criminal monetary penalty shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest was waived at the original sentencing, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553 (c), the Court states the reasons for imposition of the sentence:

IMPRISONMENT

The Court finds that the instant offense occurred after November 1, 1987. Consistent with the 10th Circuit decision in U.S. v. Lee, Chapter Seven provisions are not mandatory, but the Court has considered them in arriving at this sentence.

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of ten (10) months, said sentence to be served concurrent with the defendant's imprisonment imposed in Tulsa County Case No. CF-99-2778.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons designate the Oklahoma Department of Corrections to be the place of service of this sentence, thereby making this sentence concurrent with the defendant's imprisonment pursuant to the judgment in Tulsa County Case No. CF-99-2778.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553 (c), the Court states the reasons for imposition of the sentence:

A sentence at the high end of the guideline range was imposed due to the serious nature of the offense.

11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

FINE

$5,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200 for Counts 1 & 2 of the Second Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Count 1 of the Second Superseding Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	31
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	108 to 135 months	Counts 1 & 2
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Counts 1 & 2
Fine Range:	$15,000 to $4,000,000	Counts 1 & 2

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: the defendant was involved in distributing drugs on a continuous rate and at a high volume over an extended period of time.

PROBATION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

Unknown (see below)

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the determined amount.

Pursuant to 18 USC 3664(d)(5), a hearing will be held within 90 days to make a final determination of the victims and their precise losses.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

The Court adopts the factual findings and guidelines application in the presentence report, EXCEPT:

amount of restitution, which will be determined at a later date.

Total Offense Level:	10
Criminal History Category:	I
Fine Range:	$2,000 to $20,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Unknown (to be determined).

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: because the defendant is a first time offender and the existence of unusual family circumstances.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $9,795 as to Count 1. Interest on the fine shall be waived.

Payments for any unpaid balances shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

Any unpaid criminal monetary penalty shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest was waived at the original sentencing, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. ### PROBATION

The Defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of three (3) years.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of six (6) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
4. The defendant shall cooperate fully with the Internal Revenue Service in arranging for determination and payment of any identified tax liability.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE
$50.00	$0.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $50 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	II
Supervised Release Range:	1 year	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: because of the defendant's minimal prior criminal history.

I, the undersigned, being a duly qualified and sworn
Judge of the Court, do hereby certify that this document

13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. ### SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of thirty-six (36) months.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553 (c), the Court states the reasons for imposition of the sentence:

This sentence was imposed due to the repeated incidents of criminal association by the defendant.

5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Sex Offender Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-17, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
4. As specified by the Sex Offender condition, upon release from custody, the defendant is to check with state regulations and register as a sex offender as required.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	V
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant has previously been convicted of sex offenses.

PROBATION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of four (4) months, to commence within 72 hours of sentencing date. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

$100.00	$5,608.96	$4,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $5,608.96. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Bank One Corporate Security	PO Box 970161	Dallas TX 75397-0161	$5,608.96

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $4,000 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of Probation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	II
Imprisonment Range:	4 to 10 months	Count 1
Fine Range:	$1,000 to $10,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $5,608.96.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by application of the guidelines.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years as to Count 1 and three (3) years as to each of Counts 4 & 5, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$44,914.51

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300 for Counts 1, 4 & 5 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total approximate amount of $44,914.51. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Pursuant to 18 USC 3664(d)(5), a hearing will be held within 90 days to make a final determination of the victims and their precise losses. It is anticipated the amount will be $44,914.51 with possible reductions if some victims cannot be located or decline restitution.

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	11
Criminal History Category:	IV
Imprisonment Range:	18 to 24 months	Counts 1, 4 & 5
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1
	2 to 3 years	Counts 4 & 5

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: A sentence at the low end of the range is appropriate because of the defendant's cooperation on an unrelated criminal matter.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$10,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $10,000 for Count 1 of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	46 to 57 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

For the following specific reason: the Court departs 3 levels upward to Level 26 based on position of trust, extreme psychological injury to victims, heinous and degrading conduct by the defendant and aggravating circumstances not adequately taken into consideration by the guidelines. (Departed 1 level each pursuant to USSG §§ 5K2.0, 5K2.3, and 5K2.8).

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.

13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	V
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: Ballew was involved in the manufacturing and distribution of large quantities of methamphetamine in the Northern District of Oklahoma. In addition, he has prior convictions for possessing a controlled substance.

14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 2 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
AT&T, Case Number 2-5-136N	Box 45253	Jacksonville, FL 32232	$96.09

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The court adopts the factual findings and guideline application in the presentence report except:

Paragraph 33: there is no criminal history point because the defendant denied counsel. This changes total Criminal History points to 10, but there is no change in the Criminal History Category.

Paragraph 39: There is an unknown pending charge in Tulsa County - the defendant made state bond and was released to Federal hold on October 7, 1999. Credit for time served begins on that date. Tulsa County Case Number CF99-3348 is the same conduct as the instant offense and is set for March 17, 2000. The Honorable Michael Burrage recommends the sentence to be concurrent with that case, but it is not known whether State Judge Harris will impose sentence to run concurrently with or consecutive to the Federal sentence.

Guideline Range Determined by the Court:

Criminal History Category:	V
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 2
Fine Range:	$500 to $5,000	Count 2

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 4 months.

As notified by the US Marshal, but no later than 12:00 noon on April 2, 2000.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall be placed on home detention to include electronic monitoring at the discretion of the U. S. Probation Office for a period of four (4) months, to commence within 72 hours of release from imprisonment. During this time, the defendant shall remain at place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation office. The defendant shall maintain a telephone at place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. The defendant shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Office. The entire cost of this program shall be paid by the defendant.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $1,019.86. This amount represents half of the total restitution Heather Karr has paid in this case. The interest for restitution is waived by the Court.

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Heather Karr	20520 East Pine Street, Lot #14,	Catoosa OK 74015	$1,019.86

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	7
Criminal History Category:	II
Supervised Release Range:	3 to 5 years	Count 1

Full restitution is not ordered because Heather Karr (Northern District of Oklahoma Case number 99-CR-088-001-H) previously paid the full amount on a related case.

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: Because there are no aggravating or mitigating circumstances in this case.

PROBATION

The Defendant is hereby placed on probation for a term of two (2) years.

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.

13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
3. The Court suspends the requirements for mandatory urine screening as dictated by 18 USC § 3608, but specifically retains the probation officer's authority to administer such tests for cause as permitted by the standard conditions of supervision.
4. The defendant shall be suspended by the court from participation in the food stamp program for a total of one year, pursuant to 7 USC 2015(b)(1).

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Department of Human Services, OIG, Attn: George Tipton	Box 25352	Oklahoma City OK 73125	$189.02

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Supervised Release Range:	1 year	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: because this offense is a misdemeanor and involved a minimal financial loss.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$5,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200 for Counts 1 & 2 of the Third Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Counts 1 of the Third Superseding Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	29
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	87 to 108 months	Counts 1 & 2
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Count 1
	3 years	Count 2
	$15,000 to $150,000	Count 2

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of four (4) years, said term to run concurrently with the term of supervision imposed in the Northern District of Oklahoma Case Number 99-CR-172-K.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Counts 1 of the Second Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	19
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	30 to 37 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	4 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the Court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by application of the guidelines.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years as to each of Counts 1 & 13, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.

10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$5,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200 for Counts 1 & 13 of the Second Superseding Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Count 13 of the Second Superseding Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

FORFEITURE

The defendant shall forfeit the defendant's interest in the following property to the United States: US Currency in the sum of Twenty-One Thousand Four Hundred Thirty Dollars ($21,430.00) in United States Currency seized on June 12, 1996, from 2003 W. Xyler, Tulsa, Oklahoma; and Cash Proceeds in the approximate amount of One Million Four Hundred Ninety Three Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($1,493,700.00) in U.S. Currency, in that such sum in aggregate was received in exchange for the distribution of controlled substances or is traceable thereto.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	II
Imprisonment Range:	360 months to life	Counts 1 & 13
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Counts 1 & 13

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: because of the seriousness of the defendant's participation in a large drug distribution conspiracy.

Jack Schisler
Defendant's Attorney

FILED
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

THE DEFENDANT, heretofore convicted and sentenced in Count(s) 1 as set out in Judgment and Commitment Order entered April 1, 1998, and released to the one (1) year year term of supervised release June 1, 1999:

Admitted guilty to violation of Standard Condition(s) 1 and Special Financial Conditions of the term of supervision as to count(s) 1.

Was found in violation of Standard Condition(s) 9 of the term of supervision as to count(s) 1 after denial of guilt.

Condition Number	Nature of Violation
Special Financial Condition	The defendant did not report income in the amount of $4,500.00 to the United States Probation Officer.
Standard Condition 9	Criminal Association.

As pronounced on February 25, 2000, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 4 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

The defendant has not violated a portion of the Special Financial Condition - The Court finds that the defendant did not violate the Special Financial Conditions pertaining to the sale of a 1988 Mercedes; and is discharged as to such violation(s) of condition(s) as to count(s) 1.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid.

IMPRISONMENT

The Court finds that the instant offense occurred after November 1, 1987. Consistent with the 10th Circuit decision in U.S. v. Lee, Chapter Seven provisions are not mandatory, but the Court has considered them in arriving at this sentence.

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of seven (7) months.

RETURN

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $42,863.56 as to Count(s) 1 to the payees as ordered in the Judgment entered April 1, 1998. Court orders interest on reimposed restitution be waived.

Payments for any unpaid balances shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

Any unpaid criminal monetary penalty shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest was waived at the original sentencing, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553 (c), the Court states the reasons for imposition of the sentence:

Due to the Defendant's criminal history and the nature of the violations contained in the petition, the Court sentences the defendant within the guideline range.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Sex Offender Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-17, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Oklahoma Health Care Authority, Attn: Finance Division/TPL Payment	PO Box 18299	Oklahoma City OK 73154	$71,623.22

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	16
Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	21 to 27 months	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

CASE NUMBER 99-CR-020-K

ENTERED ON DOCKET

MAR 6 2000

JUDGMENT OF FORFEITURE AND PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

1. WHEREAS, in the Indictment and the Second Superseding Indictment filed in the above-captioned case on February 26, 1999, and May 27, 1999, respectively, the United States sought forfeiture of specific property of the defendant, Robert Eskridge, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853 as either proceeds of the unlawful drug activities charged in

Counts One and Thirteen (XIII) of the Second Superseding Indictment, or as property used or intended to be used to facilitate said violations;

2. AND WHEREAS, on September 13, 1999, this matter came on for trial, and following the trial of this case the defendant, Robert Eskridge, was found guilty on Counts One and Thirteen (XIII) of the Second Superseding Indictment, operating a Continuing Criminal Enterprise and participating in a Conspiracy to Possess with Intent to Distribute and to Distribute Controlled Substances. Following these guilty verdicts, the defendant agreed to waive jury trial as to the criminal forfeiture of the following properties and that the issue of whether the properties are subject to criminal forfeiture will be determined by the Court:

- a. U.S. Currency in the sum of Twenty-One Thousand Four Hundred Thirty Dollars ($21,430.00) in United States Currency Seized on June 12, 1996, from 2003 W. Xyler, Tulsa, Oklahoma;
- b. Cash Proceeds in the approximate amount of One Million Four Hundred Ninety Three Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($1,493,700.00) in U.S. Currency, in that such sum in aggregate was received in exchange for the distribution of controlled substances or is traceable thereto;
- c. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants --
  - (1) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
  - (2) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third person;

- (3) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;
- (4) has been substantially diminished in value; or
- (5) has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), to seek forfeiture of any other property of said defendant up to the value of the above forfeitable property, as a substitute asset, including assets or property not accurately identifiable or locatable.

3. Based upon the evidence at the criminal trial, the stipulation of the Defendant Robert Eskridge on February 17, 2000, and the evidence at the sentencing hearing on February 17, 2000, as well as the defendant's conviction on Counts One and Thirteen (XIII) of the Second Superseding Indictment, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all of the defendant's right, title and interest in the following properties is forfeited to the United States for disposition according to law, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853(n):

- a. U.S. Currency in the sum of Twenty-One Thousand Four Hundred Thirty Dollars ($21,430.00) in United States Currency Seized on June 12, 1996, from 2003 W. Xyler, Tulsa, Oklahoma;
- b. Cash Proceeds in the approximate amount of One Million Four Hundred Ninety-Three Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($1,493,700.00) in U.S. Currency, in that such sum in aggregate was received in exchange for a result of any act or omission of the defendants --

- (1) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- (2) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third person;
- (3) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;
- (4) has been substantially diminished in value; or
- (5) has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), to seek forfeiture of any other property of said defendant up to the value of the above forfeitable property, as a substitute asset, including assets or property not accurately identifiable or locatable.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED that all right, title and interest of defendant, Robert Eskridge, in the properties identified in paragraph 3 above is vested in the United States of America.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED that the United States is authorized to seize the above-described properties and the above-described properties are to be held by and in the custody and under the control of the United States Marshal Service and to be disposed of by the United States Marshal Service.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED that pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), the United States Marshal for the Northern District of Oklahoma shall forthwith publish notice of this Order once a week for three consecutive weeks in the Tulsa Daily

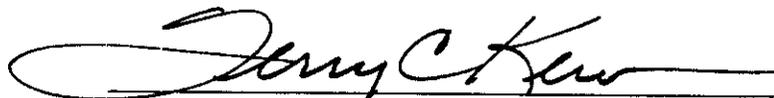

Commerce and Legal News, Tulsa, Oklahoma, a newspaper of general circulation in the Northern District of Oklahoma, setting forth therein the Marshals intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, and that any person other than the defendant, Robert Eskridge, having or claiming a legal interest in the above-described forfeited property must file a petition with the Court within thirty (30) days after the final publication of such notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier.

This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the above-described property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in each of the properties as well as any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the above-described property, which are the subject of the Motion and Brief of the United States For Issuance of A Preliminary Order Of Forfeiture filed January 3, 2000, and of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

Upon adjudication of all third-party interests, this Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) in which all interests will be addressed.

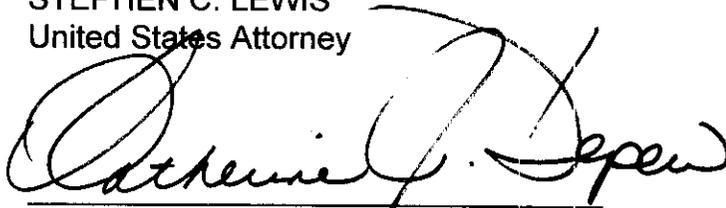

ORDERED this 2 day of March, 2000.

ENTERED ON DOCKET

DATE 3-6-00

THE DEFENDANT, heretofore convicted and sentenced in Count One as set out in Judgment and Commitment Order entered January 29, 1998, and placed on probation for a term of five years. The term of probation was revoked on October 28, 1998, resulting in a ten month term of confinement followed by a three year term of supervised release commencing on October 25, 1999:

Admitted guilt to violation of Special Condition #1, Mandatory Condition, and Condition #2 of the term of supervision as to Count One.

Condition Number	Nature of Violation
Special Condition #1 & Mandatory Condition	False Use of a Social Security Number

Condition #2	Failure to submit a complete & truthful report to the Probation Officer

As pronounced on February 22, 2000, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 4 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid.

Signed this the 3 day of March 2000.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $6,976.60 as to Count One to the payees as ordered in the Judgment entered January 29, 1998.

The defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $1,000 as to Count One.

Payments for any unpaid balances shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

Any unpaid criminal monetary penalty shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest was waived at the original sentencing, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	13
Criminal History Category:	6
Imprisonment Range:	33 to 41 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The Honorable Michael Burrage
U.S. District Court Judge

Defendant's Soc. Sec. No.: 442-94-5746

Defendant's Date of Birth: 8/8/72

Defendant's USM No.: 08610-062

PROBATION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

$100.00	$6,246.50	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Bank of America	5950 East Admiral	Tulsa OK 74115	$6,246.50

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Paragraph 6 of the Presentence Report is amended to indicate the defendant did not miss the urinalysis on November 14, 1999; Paragraph 9 is amended, deleting "sample identified Williamson as an associate of Sandy Tate and Audra Newton, and stated the three women have a reputation for stealing and pawning items"; and Paragraph 30, is amended to reflect charges as being dismissed

Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	0 to 6 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$1,000 to $10,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant does not have any criminal history and will be able to work and pay restitution approximately six months after the birth of her baby.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years as to each count, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment (to include inpatient), as directed by the Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the Probation Officer.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Sex Offender Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-17, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200 for Counts 1 & 2 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $1,000 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	19
Criminal History Category:	1
Imprisonment Range:	30 to 37 months	Counts 1 & 2
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reason: The defendant is a first time offender.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years, said term to run concurrently with term imposed in Northern District of Oklahoma Case Number 99-CR-116-001-BU.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	13
Criminal History Category:	6
Imprisonment Range:	33 to 41 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. The defendant shall release to the Northern District of Oklahoma to serve his term of supervised release.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Norwest/Wells Fargo Bank, Attn: Jane Landwehr, Account # 1634698800	3500 JFK Parkway	Fort Collins CO 80525	$6,811.77

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid as a condition of supervised release. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	12
Criminal History Category:	III
Imprisonment Range:	15 to 21 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$3,000 to $30,000	Count 1

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence departs from the guideline range:

For the following specific reason: the Court accepts the Rule 11(e)(1)(C) Plea Agreement, and finds that a downward departure is warranted due to the fact that the defendant has already served a 10 month custody for the conduct included in the instant offense.

PROBATION

While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.
2. The Court suspends the requirements for mandatory urine screening as dictated by 18 USC § 3608, but specifically retains the probation officer's authority to administer such tests for cause as permitted by the standard conditions of supervision.
3. Pursuant to 7 USC § 2024(b)(1), the court orders that the defendant be suspended from participation in the food stamp program for an additional period of 18 months consecutive to the period of suspension mandated by 7 USC § 2015(b)(1).

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

$25.00

RESTITUTION

$84.63

FINE

$5,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25 for Count 1 of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

RESTITUTION

Name of Payee	Payee Address	City, State, Zip	Amount
Department of Human Services, Office of Inspector General, Attn: George Tipton	PO Box 25352	Oklahoma City OK 73125	$84.63

Restitution shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of probation. The defendant shall notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.

If a victim has received compensation from insurance or any other source with respect to a loss, restitution shall be paid to the person who provided or is obligated to provide the compensation, but all restitution of victims shall be paid to the victims before any restitution is paid to such a provider of compensation.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Count 1 of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid during the period of Probation.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	6
Criminal History Category:	III
Supervised Release Range:	1 to 5 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$250 to $5,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $84.63.

The Court departs from the sentence called for by application of the guidelines for the following reasons: the Court finds that the defendant's Criminal History Category of III significantly over-represents the seriousness of the defendant's criminal history and that the defendant's criminal past most closely resembles that of defendants with a Criminal History Category of I.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of three (3) years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine principal; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$2,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count 1 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $2,000 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

the Criminal History Category should be V

Total Offense Level:	19
Criminal History Category:	V
Imprisonment Range:	57 to 60 months	Count 1
Supervised Release Range:	2 to 3 years	Count 1
Fine Range:	$6,000 to $60,000	Count 1

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The fine is waived or is below the guideline range because of the defendant's inability to pay.

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range does not exceed 24 months, and the Court finds no reason to depart from the sentence called for by application of the guidelines.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years as to each of Counts 1 & 11, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE
$200.00	$0.00	$0.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200 for Counts 1 & 11 of the Second Superseding indictment, which shall be due immediately.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Total Offense Level:	34
Criminal History Category:	III
Imprisonment Range:	188 to 235 months	Counts 1 & 11
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Count 1
	2 to 3 years	Count 11
Fine Range:	$17,500 to $4,000,000	Counts 1 & 11

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: the defendant does not have an extensive criminal history involving similar offenses. However, a significant amount of drugs were involved, specifically heroin, cocaine, and methamphetamine. Also, the defendant is being held accountable for only the drug.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years as to Count 1 and three (3) years as to each of Counts 3 & 4, said terms to run concurrently, each with the other.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

ASSESSMENT	RESTITUTION	FINE
$300.00	$0.00	$5,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300 for Counts 1, 3 & 4 of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The Court has determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is accordingly ordered that the interest requirement is waived.

The defendant shall pay a fine of $5,000 for Count 1 of the Indictment. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay the fine.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Criminal History Category:	I
Imprisonment Range:	235 to 293 months	Counts 1 & 3
	120 months	Count 4
Supervised Release Range:	5 years	Count 1
	3 years	Counts 3 & 4

Total amount of Restitution: $ Not Applicable

The sentence is within the guideline range, that range exceeds 24 months, and the sentence is imposed for the following reasons: Trammel manufactured and distributed not less than 36 kg of pure methamphetamine.
