

LCrR6 – The Grand Jury

LCrR6-1 Release of Grand Jury Material to ~~U.S.~~United States Probation Officer.

The attorney for the government may, upon the request of the probation office, disclose to the probation office grand jury matter concerning a defendant for whom the Court has ordered the probation office to prepare a presentence investigation report. The probation office shall not use grand jury matter for any purpose other than preparation of a presentence report. The probation office shall not disclose grand jury matter except to the defendant's attorney in connection with the presentence investigation and in the presentence report. The attorney for the defendant shall not disclose grand jury matter except to defendant and in connection with the sentencing proceeding.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Minor changes for consistency with other rules.